

Wondering why we always ask who you are? It's to make sure your money always goes where it belongs.

Every time you contact us to ask about, or make changes to, your superannuation account, you'll be asked to provide proof of identity. This is to safeguard your entitlements from fraudulent or illegal activities.

Generally, we'll ask you to confirm your full name, date of birth and residential address. However, to allow us to process applications and certain transactions, you'll need to provide certified documentation. This is a legislative requirement put in place to protect you and your super.

HOW TO PROVE YOUR IDENTITY?

Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act), superannuation funds are required to identify, monitor and mitigate the risk that the Fund may be used to launder money or finance terrorism. This means we are required by law to verify your identity before we can pay your benefit.

If you are requesting a cash payment or transfer to a Self Managed Super Fund, you need to prove you are the person to whom the superannuation entitlements belong.

You will need to prove your identity at the time of each payment request. Processing of forms cannot proceed, until we have verified your identity in one of the following ways.

1. You can use the Benefit Payment Direction Form to authorise the Russell Investments Master Trust to verify your identity electronically. You will need details from two of the following three documents: your Passport, Driver Licence and/or Medicare Card.
2. You can provide certified paper copies of identification documentation. The easiest way to have your ID certified is to visit your local post office or police station. A complete list of accepted authorised persons is provided on page 2.

	You need to get an authorised person to certify a photocopy of either your Driver Licence, Proof of Age Card OR Passport.¹
AND	AND
	You also need to get an authorised person to certify a photocopy of your Birth Certificate, Citizenship Certificate or Pension Card OR a recent Government Letter (e.g. a notice from the Australian Taxation Office, Centrelink payment letter, or a local council notice that shows your name and address).

WHO CAN CERTIFY DOCUMENTS?

All copied pages of original proof of identification documents need to be certified as true copies by any individual approved to do so.

The person who is authorised to certify documents must sight the original and the copy, and make sure both documents are identical. Once this is done, they need to write or stamp 'certified true copy' on the document followed by their signature, printed name, qualification (e.g. Justice of the Peace, Australia Post employee, etc) and date.

For a complete list of authorised witnesses/certifiers, go to the Attorney-General's Department website at ag.gov.au

The fund will only accept documents certified by one of the following:

- medical practitioner
- pharmacist
- police officer
- Justice of the Peace
